

EL CAJON MAYOR, BILL WELLS

El Cajon Mayor Bill Wells Takes the Stage for a Remarkable Charity Concert Saturday at Magnolia Theater

El Cajon Mayor Bill Wells is thrilled to announce an electrifying evening of entertainment as he and his band take the spotlight at the Magnolia Theater on Saturday, September 30, from 5:00 to 9:00 pm PDT.

Joining forces with his bandmates, Mayor Bill Wells is all set to thrill the audience with a soul-stirring performance filled with well-known tunes that will get everyone on their feet. The concert promises a diverse musical journey from classic hits to modern favorites that will appeal to all generations.

But this concert isn't just about the music—it's about making a positive change in the community. Proceeds from the show will support the East County Transitional Center, an invaluable resource pivotal in transforming lives and creating pathways out of homelessness. The East County Transitional Center provides shelter, guidance, and opportunities to individuals in need, ensuring they have the support required to rebuild their lives.

The East County Transitional Center has been a beacon of hope, working tirelessly to offer comprehensive services that provide immediate relief and empower individuals with the skills and resources they need to regain their independence and reintegrate into society. By attending this concert, patrons will enjoy a fantastic evening of music and contribute to this vital cause that touches countless lives within the community.

Mayor Bill Wells shared his enthusiasm for the event: "I'm excited to combine my passion for music with a cause that's close to my heart. Homelessness is a complex issue, and the East County Transitional Center is doing exceptional work to address it. This concert is an opportunity for us to come together, enjoy some incredible music, and make a meaningful impact on our community."
